Minutes:

We started the planning meeting around 8 PM. We discussed a bit about how the next developments should be lined up to deliver more meaningful functionality to the user. We all agreed that we should have a client meeting as soon as possible to show our progress with the current developments. Considering those points we allocated tasks for ourselves keeping a minimum of 20 hours workload for each of us. After adding all the tasks for the sprint 4, the statistics are as below.
